Heal, Connect & Empower through Art

A WOMEN'S WISDOM INITIATIVE

Traveling Postcards Campus Questionnaire

A Traveling Postcards Workshop is a healing arts workshop that gives voice and comfort to survivors of gender violence. Many violence prevention organizations, including colleges and universities use Traveling Postcards as an additional tool for healing after trauma and to promote recovery. Traveling Postcards is also an excellent tool for advocacy and to promote gender equality on campus.

The Women's Wisdom Initiative provides our trauma informed Traveling Postcards workshop to college campuses and can hold multiple workshops over the course of 1-2 days with members of the student body, staff and supporting networks.

Please take a moment and tell us something about yourself, your group and why you are interested in becoming involved with the Women's Wisdom Initiative and the Traveling Postcards program.
